

UPDATE ON THE ECONOMIC IMPACT OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

The International Education sector continues to grow in BC. The numbers below are from the Economic Impact of International Education report commissioned by BCCIE from Roslyn Kunin & Associates based on the number of international students in BC in 2013-14, compared with the number of international students in BC in 2009-10.

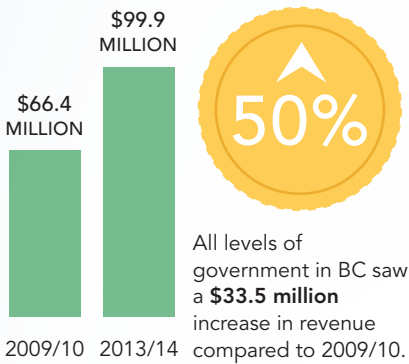

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS IN BC

■ Post-Secondary ■ Private Language Sector* ■ Public/Independent K-12
*Languages Canada report. Non-member language schools are not included.

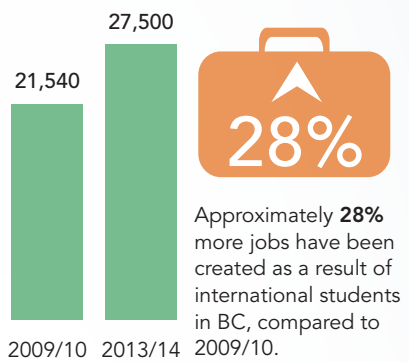

The number of international students in BC grew from 94,000 to 114,600.

GOVERNMENT REVENUE GENERATED

JOBS CREATED

ECONOMIC CONTRIBUTIONS TO BRITISH COLUMBIA

International students make up a large and growing contribution to the economy of BC. Their total spending contributes over $2.6 billion to the provincial economy.

DIRECT CONTRIBUTION IN PROVINCIAL GDP

The sum of international student spending in BC translates into $1.86 billion in provincial GDP, a $610 million increase compared to 2009/10.

BC'S INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION SERVICES RANKS 5TH WHEN COMPARED WITH BC'S EXPORT IN GOODS

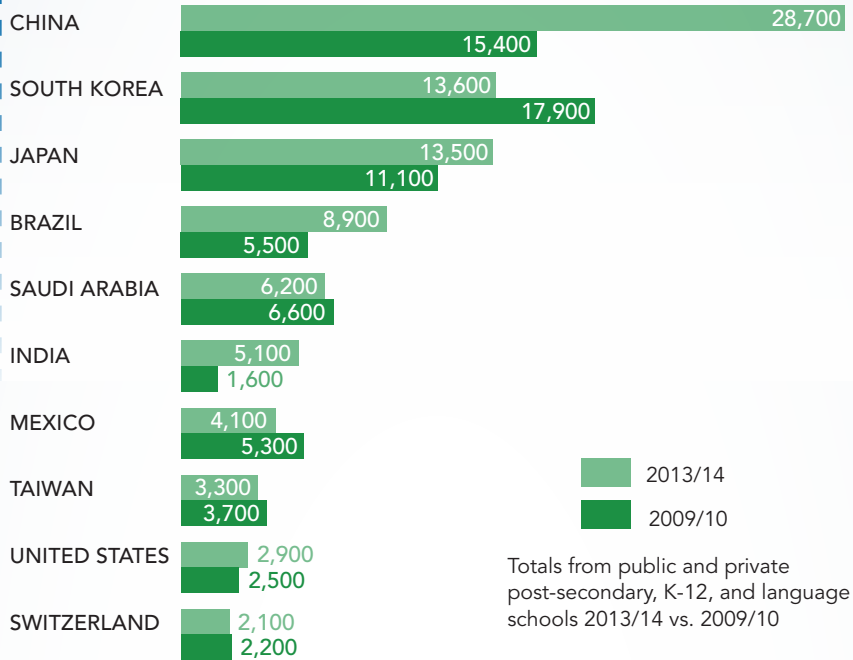

WHERE ARE INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS IN BC?

DID YOU KNOW?

The Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) is the world's 3rd largest economy and now equal to the 8th largest source of international students in BC.

NUMBER OF STUDENTS BY SOURCE MARKET

Roslyn Kunin & Associates, Inc. (RKA, Inc.) | rkunin.com

Find the full report under BCCIE Resources | bccie.bc.ca/resources/reports-publications/

ABOUT BCCIE

The British Columbia Council for International Education (BCCIE), a provincial Crown Corporation incorporated under the Society Act, reports to the Ministry of Advanced Education. BCCIE is committed to profiling British Columbia as the education destination of choice for learners from around the globe and to promoting global citizenry and internationalization at all levels in BC's education system. BCCIE serves the needs of all International Education sectors of British Columbia including: public and independent K-12, public and private post-secondary, and language schools. To find out more, visit: bccie.bc.ca

STAY CONNECTED

@bccie

/bccie

linkd.in/bcciel

