

Dr. Randall Martin

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Randall has experience spanning more than 30 years in post-secondary education, development education, project management and implementation, and international education, having worked on projects in institutions, associations, and societies across BC.

He is a recognized leader, builder, and administrator and an award-winning ambassador for international education. Randall remains active in the academic pursuits of research and authorship, in presentations and training, and in consultations for institutions, associations, and jurisdictions. He is the author or co-author of numerous papers, a sought-after speaker, and a regular presenter at national and international conferences and symposia.

Prior to joining BCCIE, Randall worked at SFU for 20 years, four of which were on an SFU-led development project in Indonesia. He has an earned doctorate in International Education and both a Master of Arts (Applied Linguistics) and a Bachelor of Arts (Double Major in Linguistics and English Literature) degree from SFU. Since 2006, Randall has led BCCIE in advancing the Province of British Columbia's agenda on international education.
